Laurent – Perrier champagne stands out from the crown in its category, displaying freshness, finesse and elegance, the cuvée Rosé (produced using the saignée process) is famous for its highly expressive bouquet, which stems from the very careful preservation of the grape's natural fresh red fruit aromas. It is one of the rare rosé champagnes to be made using the maceration (skin contact) technique, which gives it the extraordinary depth and freshness that has made it the benchmark for rosé champagne around the world.

Casa Lapostolle was originally a joint French and Chilean operation, and is well known to UK wine drinkers, even though it was only established as recently as 1994. The Marnier-Lapostolle family, the French half of the original partnership, are probably best known for the Grand Marnier liqueur, although they also own the Chateau de Sancerre in the Loire Valley, where they have a long history of viticulture. Vineyards covering an amazing 350 hectares, planted up with Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Chardonnay, Sauvignon Blanc, Carmenere and even Syrah.

*This bread I break was once the oat,
This wine upon a foreign tree Plunged in its fruit;
Man in the day or wind at night Laid the crops low,
broke the grape's joy.
Dylan Thomas*

*Souls of poets dead and gone, What Elysium have ye known,
Happy field or mossy cavern,
Choicer than the Mermaid Tavern?
Have ye tippled drink more fine
Than mine host's Canary wine?
